

A photograph of a small white daisy flower with a yellow center, growing from a patch of green leaves in a dry, rocky, and cracked soil. The ground is covered with small, light-colored stones and larger, flat, reddish-brown rocks. The word "Hope" is overlaid in a large, bold, black serif font with a white outline.

Hope

Rosie Philomena

Romans 15:13

May the God of hope fill you with all joy & peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

When life is running smoothly
And it's going as we planned
We can become complacent
This I'm sure you'll understand!

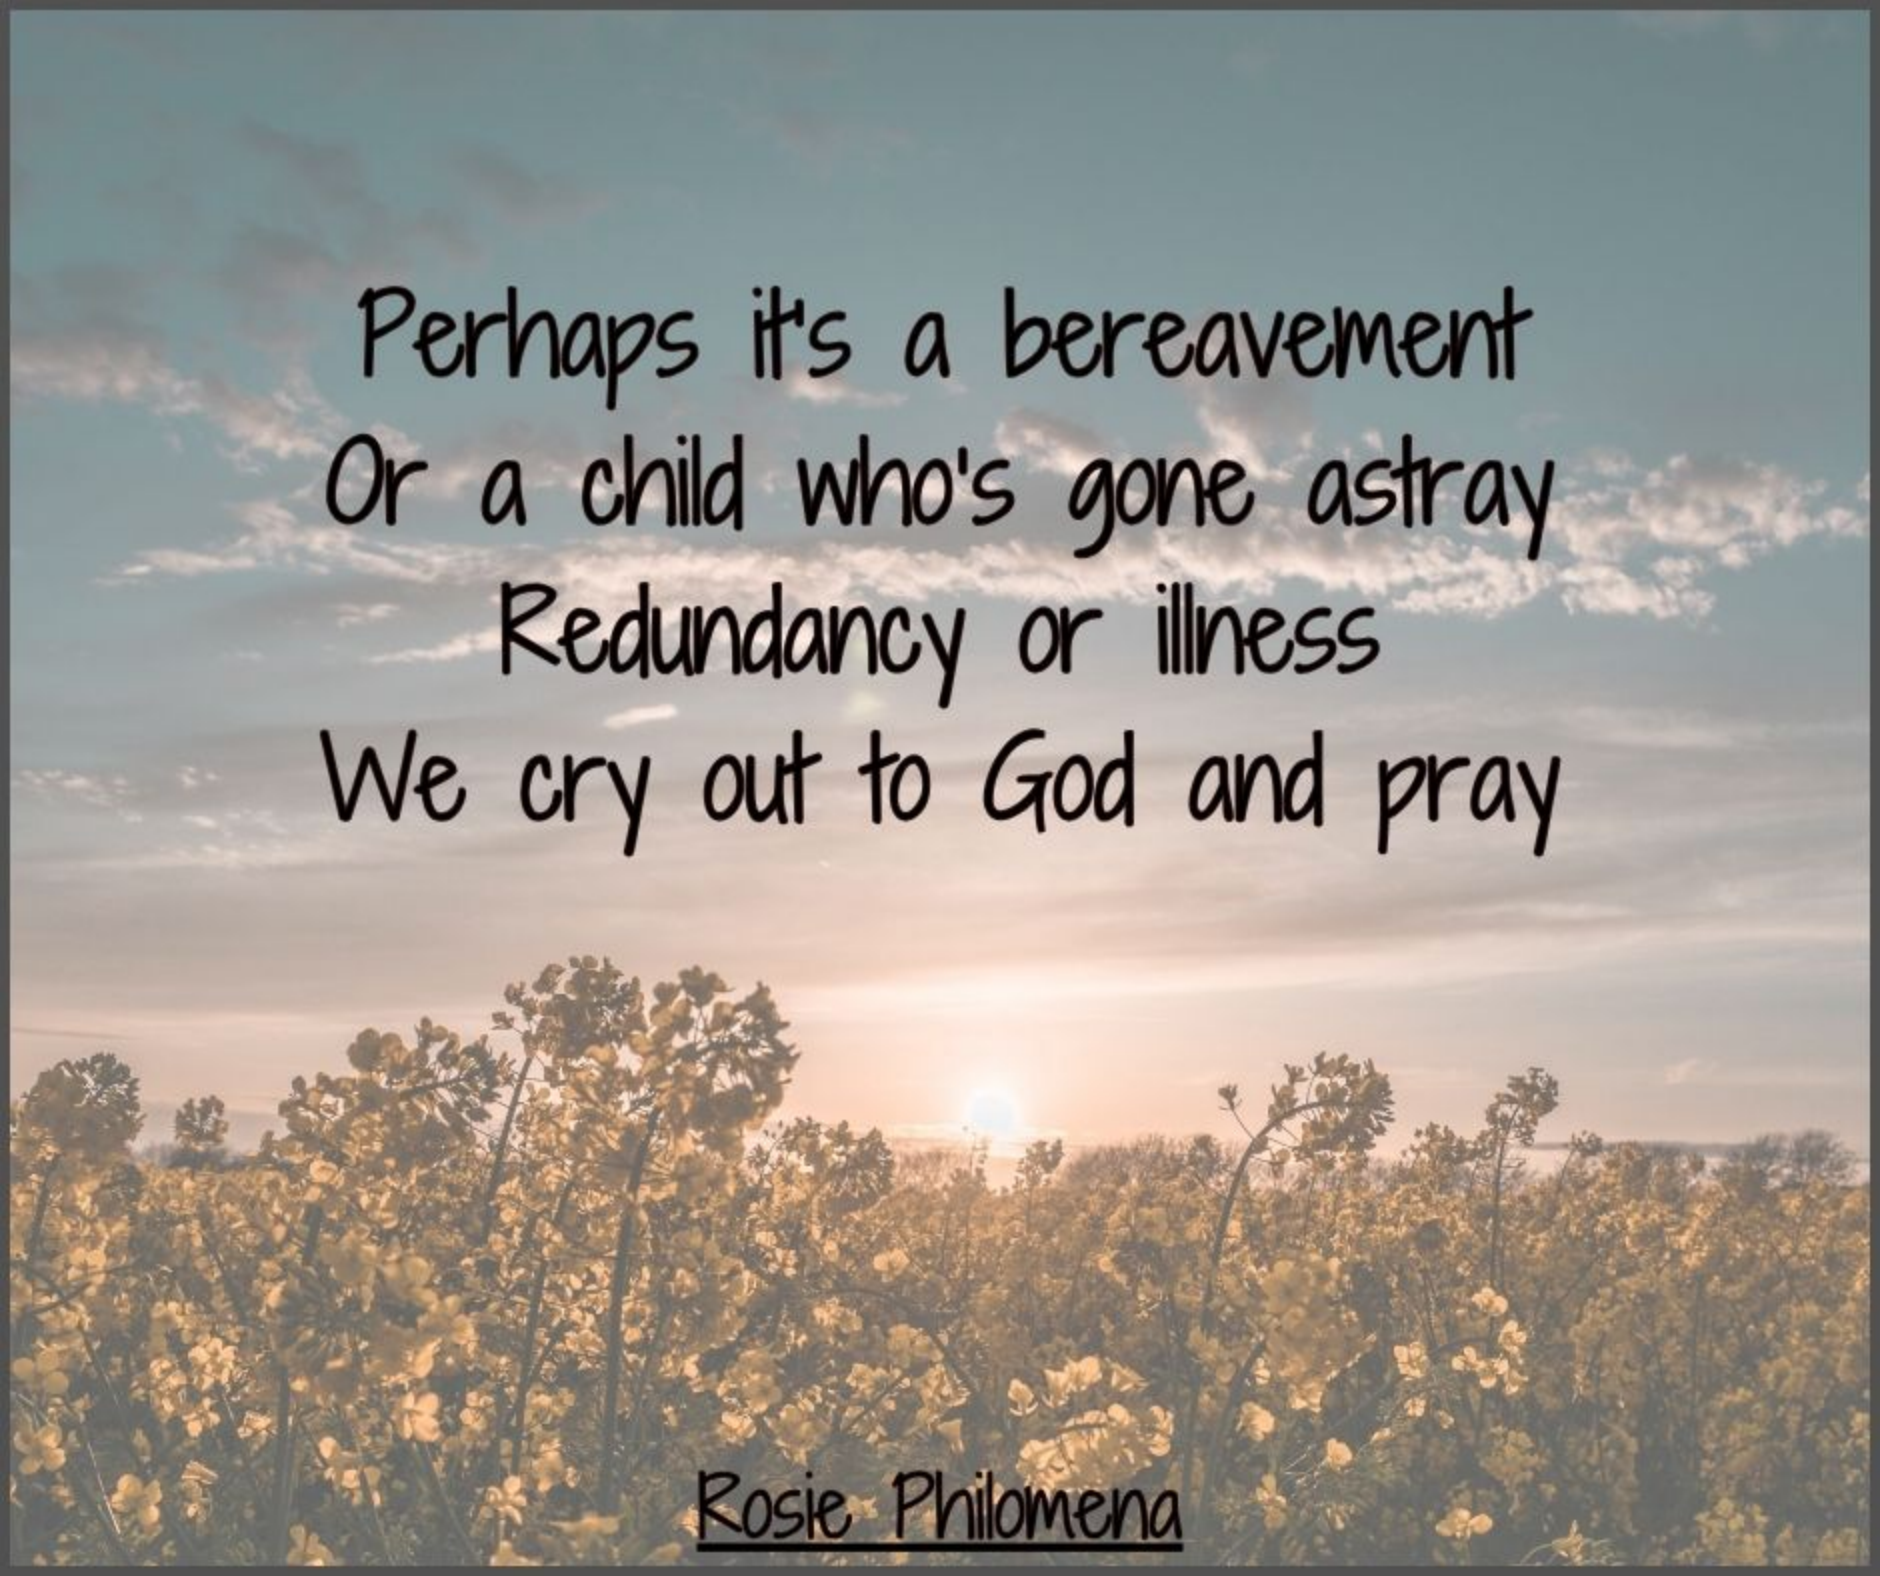

Rosie Philomena

But when we face a challenge
And life's looking rather bleak
That's when we search for answers
And God's comfort we will seek

Rosie Philomena

Perhaps it's a bereavement
Or a child who's gone astray
Redundancy or illness
We cry out to God and pray

Rosie Philomena

We've hope that He will change things
Even though we don't see how
But God knows what He's doing
And He's working even now

Rosie Philomena

So when our faith is tested
And we're struggling to cope
Let's fix our eyes on Jesus
He's our beacon of great hope

Rosie Philomena

A photograph of a small white daisy flower with a yellow center, growing from a patch of green leaves in a dry, rocky, and cracked soil. The ground is covered with small, light-colored stones and larger, flat, reddish-brown rocks. The word "Hope" is superimposed in a large, bold, black serif font with a white outline across the top half of the image.

Hope

Copyright © Rosie Philomena 2025